

WILLIAM A. FUHRMAN

William A. Fuhrman brings twenty-five years of litigation experience to the firm. His practice includes insurance litigation, coverage, bad faith and defense; products liability; business litigation; and lender liability matters.

Bill began his legal career after working in the ski industry, in Boise and Sun Valley, for six years. After graduating from Boise State University, he attended the University of Idaho College of Law, graduating with highest honors. Bill was admitted to the Idaho State Bar in 1982.

Following graduation, Bill became a law clerk to the Honorable J. Blaine Anderson of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. During his clerkship, he had the opportunity to participate in several significant appeals, including the Oakland Raiders antitrust suit in which the Raiders fought for the right to move to Los Angeles. Bill completed his clerkship in 1984 and entered into private practice with one of Boise's largest firms.

In 1998, Bill joined Jones Gledhill as one of the named partners. Bill has tried several cases to successful jury verdict for such clients as GTE, Rubbermaid, Thyssen Krupp Elevator Company, and various insurers such as Geico Insurance Company, Aetna, Liberty Mutual, and the Kemper Companies. Other representative clients include CNH America (Case International and New Holland), the Hershey Company, Sanofi-Aventis, Walgreen's, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, United National Group and MetLife.

A member of the Idaho State Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the Defense Research Institute and the American Inns of Court, Bill also enjoys the highest professional ranking available to lawyers. Bill is admitted to practice in all courts of the State of Idaho, the United States District Courts of Idaho and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Bill brings to your service the experience of having tried over twenty cases to jury verdict, saving his clients millions of dollars in alleged damages. While representing Rubbermaid Corporation in a State of Idaho suit, Bill achieved a successful jury verdict defeating allegations that a Rubbermaid product caused or contributed to over $3 million in damages in the Statehouse fire. Bill also successfully achieved a verdict of "no liability" on behalf of Renegade of Idaho defeating allegations that his client caused a wildfire resulting in several million dollars in damages. In addition, Bill has numerous years of experience before Idaho juries successfully defending personal injury lawsuits.

"My attitude toward practicing law is to provide the best legal advice and to secure the best resolution to disputes economically and practically, always keeping the client's interest in mind."
